

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

IN RE:

ELECTRONIC CASE FILING

Amended General Order Assigning All Cases to the Electronic Filing System Effective April 12, 2004

Pursuant to the court's Amended General Order Authorizing Electronic Case Filing entered January 7, 2004, all future, pending, and closed cases are hereby assigned to the Electronic Filing System effective April 12, 2004. The court will no longer accept paper documents for filing except from pro se debtors, certain creditor-claimants, and attorneys currently enrolled in a bankruptcy ECF training class in this district. Creditor-claimants such as credit card companies, financial institutions, and collection agencies who receive multiple bankruptcy notices annually are required to file electronically.

Attorneys who have attended an ECF training class shall have a 15 day grace period following the date of their class in which they may file paper documents.
