Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one).

The pleading referred to above may be viewed in the Bankruptcy Clerk's office during regular business hours or on PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records) at <https://www.pacer.ilcb.uscourts.gov>.

If you do not want the Court to grant the relief sought in the above named document or if you want the Court to consider your views, then you or your attorney must file a written objection explaining your position.

Written objections must be filed with the Clerk's Office by _____.

You must also serve a copy on interested parties and file a proof of service with the Clerk of the court.

If you or your attorney do not file a timely objection, the Court may decide that you do not oppose the relief sought and may enter an order granting that relief.

Dated:

Adrienne D. Atkins
Clerk, U. S. Bankruptcy Court
